

In celebration of our 20th Anniversary,
Women in Aerospace is pleased to invite you to:

A keynote breakfast with the new NASA Administrator, Dr. Michael D. Griffin

Where/When

Tuesday, May 3, 2005, 7:30 a.m. coffee and networking, 8:00 a.m. breakfast
Capitol Hill Club, 300 First Street SE, Washington DC
(Nearest Metro: Capitol South – Orange/Blue)

Cost

- Individuals: $40 for WIA members, Congress, Government / $50 for non-members
- Corporate/Non-profit WIA members: $320 for a full table of 8
- Corporate/Non-profit non-members: $400 for a full table of 8, plus 2 free individual memberships for any two company employees not already WIA members
- Press: No charge

Payment options: Cash or Check (payable to “Women in Aerospace”) at the door

Registration is required and seating is limited.

Please contact Eileen McGowan, WIA’s VP for Programs, to register by April 27th:
emcgowan@futron.com or 301-347-3431

Please include your full name and affiliation along with contact information.

Upcoming WIA Events:

- May 25th WIA Members-only Professional Development Program – Details TBA
- June 29th (tent.) Evening Program – “Post Tsunami Lessons Learned: Earth Observation and Disaster Relief (Part 2 of 2)” – Details TBA

---

Women in Aerospace (WIA) is dedicated to expanding women’s opportunities for leadership and increasing their visibility in the aerospace community.